Christine Chin brushes her signature green-tea mask on a client at her Lower East Side spa in N.Y.C.

TOP FACIALS

Let's face it, everyone wants skin that glows. Take yours from rough to radiant at these spas

BOSTON

Melt Salon & Spa /

172 Newbury St., 617-262-1116

THE SCOOP Need a quick fix?

Nourish your skin on your lunch break. During this spa's signature Hydra facial, custom serums cleanse, exfoliate, extract and moisturize—all in only 30 minutes. PRICE $200

ATLANTA

Derma-Luxe Custom Skin Care / 3077 E.

Shadowlawn Ave., 404-816-6006

THE SCOOP Fans of this facial haven rave about its heated beds, potent masks and thorough extractions. A compressed oxygen infusion leaves skin noticeably tighter. PRICE $150

NEW YORK CITY

Christine Chin Spa /

82 Orchard St., 212-353-0503

THE SCOOP The serene, spacious interior of Chin's new spa belies her tough-love approach to coaxing out flawless skin. After applying a glycolic-acid mask, Chin spends most of her time excavating clogged pores with a lancet (a little deep breathing is required); she then soothes skin with an ice-cold green-tea foam mask. PRICE $120

Sally Hershberger Face Place / 425 W. 14th St., 212-

367-8200 THE SCOOP During this high-tech facial, dry hot towels (not steam) are used to open pores. Next, a galvanic current is applied through a leather mask (claustrophobes beware!) to firm skin and help it absorb the vitamin-C-and-zinc serum. PRICE $125

LAS VEGAS

Qua Baths & Spa / Caesars

Palace, 3570 Las Vegas Blvd. S., 866-782-0655 THE SCOOP Those with parched skin flock to this new 6,500-square-foot beauty mecca for the Optimum Hydration facial. From the alcohol-free toner to the creamy mask with pure aloe vera, every step moisturizes and plumps fine lines. PRICE $180 →
